

BEAN BUSTER CHALLENGE

This event is for everyone from 18 years old and up to join. A fun challenge and bragging rights to the first annual Bean buster Challenge. You will require a team of four to participate. All items and supplies will be provided.

There is an entry fee of $40.00 per team, with half the entry fee going back to the winning team. This is a timed event. The team with the fastest time over the weekend will be announced the winner. If there is a tie, the crowd favorite will be the winner. The tasks of this event are listed below. All the competitors rules are listed on the back.

Objective: To start a fire and get your bean can to blow sky high!

The Trapper (1st person): He or she is responsible for the trapline clearing. They must also bring wood back to camp to get the fire burning for supper. The snow is deep, so first- you must strap on a pair of snowshoes. Make sure they are tight and won't come off. You then race to the wood pile for your first piece of wood to return it back to camp. Take as many trips as you need. Or are told to by the Camp Boss.

Chore Boy (2nd person): They are the axe throwing professionals. Responsible to chop the wood and make kindling. Make enough to satisfy the Cook and Camp Boss. You can then help with the fire but listen to the Cook and retrieve the supplies they require. If the Cook sends you out, you will be evaluated on your axe throwing skills so don't forget your axe.

Cook (3rd person): This is where the magic starts to happen. They are responsible to get the fire going and supper on its way. Get that fire positioned under the bean can and get it cooking. As the fire starts to roar the bean can will bulge up. You are just about to send the Camp Boss running.

Camp Boss (4th person): Very driven or some might say grump. It is their responsibility to make everything run smooth. Yelling encouragement and helpful praise to the other three. The camp boss does not do any of the chores. Instead, they take their place on a stump by the fire. As the fire heats up so should the camp bosses excitement. Supper is just about ready. Get those last orders to the crew to get the job done. When the bean can blows the camp boss springs into action! You'll want to hunt that bean can down and catch it before it hits the ground. If you do, 30 seconds will be deducted from your score. BUT you have competition. When a bean can blows, ALL camp bosses will be in the hunt. If you can knock away competitors bean can, you can stop them from getting the 30 second deduction from their time.
