Be it enacted as a bylaw of the Association as follows:

Article 1 Name and Purpose of Association

The name of the Association is the “Alberta Trappers Association” herein referred to as the “Association”.

Article 2 Definitions

In this bylaw and all other bylaws, policies and resolutions, unless the context otherwise requires:

- Act means the “Societies Act” of Alberta;
- Affiliated Organization means Trapper Locals affiliated with the Association as part of the zones identified in these bylaws.
- Annual General Meeting (AGM) means the annual meeting of Members held pursuant to these bylaws;
- Articles means the original or restated articles of incorporation or amendments thereto;
- Association Means the Alberta Trappers Association;
- Board means the Board of Directors of the Association. The purpose of the Board is to provide oversight, guidance, direction, policies and performance measures for the effective and efficient running of the business affairs of the Association.
- Bylaw means this bylaw and any other bylaws of the Association and which are in full force and effect;
- Conflict of interest A conflict of interest is a situation in which a Director or Employee is involved in multiple interests, financial interest, or otherwise, one of which could possibly corrupt the motivation of the individual detrimental to the Association. The presence of a conflict of interest is independent of the occurrence of impropriety.
- Director means a person elected or selected by means as determined in this bylaw by the Members and occupying any position as a Member of the Board;

- Director Conflict of Interest – means a situation that has the potential to undermine the impartiality of the Director because of the possibility of a conflict between the Director’s self-interest and the trust relationship of the Association, or when the duty to a second party limits the Director’s ability to discharge unbiased responsibility to the Association.
- Director Pecuniary Interest - means something that could monetarily affect the Director, the Director’s spouse, or adult interdependent partner, or children, the Director’s parents or the parents of the Director’s spouse (in other words, the immediate family), or a business which employs the Director or in which the Director has an interest.
- Executive means the Executive Officers of the Board of Directors;
- Meeting of the Members means a meeting of the Members eligible to vote at an AGM or Special Meeting;
- Member means a person in good standing and eligible to vote under the requirements of the Association bylaws;
- Membership means a reference to the classes of Members as described in Article 4 in these bylaws;
- Public means any person who is not a Member, Associate Member or Corporate Member. Public persons are not entitled to attend any meeting of the Association and may attend only by permission of the Board.
- President means the elected President of the Association who will assume the role of Board Chairperson;
- Ordinary Resolution means a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a formal meeting of the Board of Directors or at an AGM or Special Meeting;
- Resolution means a proposition offered to or adopted by the Association wherein the Members have received notice of the Resolution at least 30 days prior to the AGM;
- Securities includes bonds, debentures, trust certificates, guaranteed investment certificates or receipts, certificates of deposit, deposit receipts, bills, notes and mortgages of real estate or leaseholds and rights or interests in respect of a security.

- Secretary means the secretary selected by the Board of Directors as a member of the Board Executive.
- Society means the Association incorporated under the Act;
- Special Meeting means a meeting called by the Board or Members to discuss specific matters stated in the notice of the meeting. It is a meeting of Members outside the AGM.
- Special Resolution means a resolution passed at an AGM or Special Meeting of which proper notice specifying the intention to propose the Special Resolution has been duly provided to the Members. Approval of a Special Resolution requires a vote of not less than 3/4 of those Members present at the Special Meeting who are eligible and entitled to vote.
- Treasurer means the treasurer selected by the Board as a member of the Board Executive responsible for oversight of the financial affairs of the Association.
- Vice President means the elected Vice President holding the office of Vice President.

Article 3 – Society Seal

The Alberta Trappers' Association will not adopt a society seal.

Article - 4 Memberships

4.01 Classes of Membership

The Association is comprised of three classes of membership:

1. Member: A Member is a licensed Alberta trapper who meets the qualifications of Membership as prescribed by these bylaws and who has been processed pursuant to policy as established by the Board. A Member possesses all the rights and privileges of membership including eligibility to vote. Member includes a Lifetime Member. A Member may hold office and become a Director of the Association.
2. Associate Member: Has all the rights and privileges of membership as established by these bylaws, except the right to vote or become a Director of the Association. An Associate Member may attend the AGM and Special Meetings and take part in discussions.

but does not have the right to vote or become a Director of the Association. Each Corporate Member shall appoint one representative to speak on behalf of the corporation.

4.02 Members Rights, Obligations and Responsibilities

1. All Members must adhere to the bylaws, policies, and objectives of the Association.
2. Board representatives selected by each Zone through the Zone Locals must ensure that there is a two-way flow of communication with the Locals throughout the Zone in concert with the Association.
3. Any Member in good standing who is eligible to vote is entitled to receive proper notice of, attend and vote at any AGM or Special Meeting.
4. Associate and Corporate Members will be notified of the AGM and Special Meetings. Corporate Members may with the approval of the Chairperson participate in discussions but will have no vote.
5. No Member is, in their individual capacity, liable for any debt or liability of the Association.
6. No Member or Local can commit the Association to any legal, contractual, or operational matter without the express written consent as authorized through resolution of the Association Board.
7. No right or privilege of any Member is transferable to another person. All rights and privileges cease when the Member resigns, Membership is terminated, or the Member passes away.
8. A Member may withdraw from the Association by issuing notice in writing to the Board.
9. All Members of the executive of any Local must hold a current membership in the Association.

4.03 Membership Fees

The Board will establish membership fees for the three classes of Members. Current membership fees will remain in effect until the Board amends the fees. Prior to amending membership fees, the Board will inform Members of the proposed change, a minimum of 60 days before the fee change comes into effect.

4.04 Termination of Membership

1. A membership is terminated when:
 - a) A Member dies or, in the case of a corporation, the corporation dissolves;
 - b) A Member fails to maintain qualifications again the issue of what these qualifications are for membership prescribed in these bylaws or Board Policy;
 - c) If a membership is delinquent, it is deemed to be terminated.
 - d) A Member may resign by notifying the Board, in writing, in which case the resignation will take effect on the date it was submitted to the Board;
 - e) The membership is not renewed;
 - f) The Association ceases to exist.
2. A Member may resign membership at any time; however, the membership fee will not be refunded.
3. The Association is not required to contact the Member for payment of a membership fee.
4. The Board may, by Special Resolution at a Special Meeting for such a purpose terminate any Member for any cause which is deemed sufficient in the interest of the Association. This decision is final.
5. On passage of the Special Resolution, the name of the Member is removed from the registry of Members and at this point, the Member forfeits all rights and privileges of Membership.

4.05 Suspended Membership

1. The Board may suspend a Member, Associate Member or Corporate Member for just cause as established by Board Policy. The decision of the Board shall be based on reasonable and verifiable facts. Some reasons for suspension include but are not limited to the following:
 - a. Violating any provision of the bylaws, policies and directives of the Association;
 - b. Carrying out any conduct which may be detrimental to, or reflect negatively on, the Association as determined by the Board at its sole discretion;

3. Only the matters set out in the notice of Special Meeting are considered at the Special Meeting.
4. A quorum must be present at the start of the Special Meeting in order to conduct the business as proposed in the agenda of the Special Meeting.
5. In the event a quorum is not present, the Special Meeting will be postponed until a new date can be set.
6. In the event the matter to be presented at a Special Meeting is or has been addressed prior to the Special Meeting, the meeting may be cancelled by notifying the Members of such cancellation.

5.06 Election of President and Vice President

1. To be eligible to run for President or Vice President a Member must have served at least one year on the Board within the last three years.
2. Candidates must advise the Board of their intention to let their name stand for nomination so that notice of intent from the candidate can be provided to the Members at least 60 days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
3. If more than one candidate issues notice of intent to run for the President or Vice-President position the Members at the AGM will vote for the President and the Vice-President at the Annual General Meeting.
4. Only Members present and in good standing are entitled to vote.
5. In the event that no member provides notice of intent to run for the President or Vice-President positions, the Board may call for nominations from the Members. Nominated candidate names shall be submitted to the Members not less than 30 days prior to the AGM who may vote for a candidate of their choice.

5.07 Resolutions

1. Proposed Resolutions for review at the AGM must be submitted to the Board at least 60 days prior to the AGM. Notice of resolutions will be provided to the Members not less than 30 days prior to AGM.
2. Notice of Proposed Special Resolutions for review at a Special Meeting must be submitted to the Members at least 21 days prior to the Special Meeting.

5.08 Board Meetings

1. An organizational meeting shall be held within 30 days of the Annual General Meeting. At the organizational meeting, the Treasurer and Secretary will be appointed, and key strategic matters will be prioritized. As well, resolutions will be passed to appoint, by resolution, bank-signing authorities.
2. Decisions at Board Meetings require a majority vote of the Members of the Board present.
3. In the event of a vacancy of the Treasurer or Secretary positions the Board may, by resolution, appoint a person from the Board of Directors to fill such vacancy.
4. Any Director who misses two consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors without an acceptable reason or approval of the Board may be asked to step down from the Board.
5. Any Director who misses 3 consecutive regular meetings of the Board without approval by the Board is automatically disqualified and Board membership is terminated.

6. A Special Meeting of the Board may be called by the President or any two Executive Officers. Any four Directors may also request that the President call a Special Board Meeting.
7. A Special Board Meeting requires at least 48 hours' notice. Notice may be waived by the Board Members if a quorum plus one is present.
8. The Executive of the Association may meet as needed to address any matter that requires governance direction if that matter cannot wait until the next regular Board Meeting.
9. Board Meetings will be held regularly, at least 4 times per calendar year (one per quarter).
10. Board Meetings may be held by conference call or by other electronic means.
11. The Board shall establish dates for meetings.
12. The President will preside as Chairperson and in his/her absence the Vice President, of the Board Meetings.
13. Board Meetings will follow "Robert's Rules of Order", until the Board establishes a Board Procedure Policy.
14. Committees: The Board may establish any number of committees it deems necessary for the effective running of the Association business. All committees will have terms of reference, meeting procedures, keep minutes and report back to the Board.

Article 6 - Provincial Zones

6.01 Zones and Zone Representation

The Province of Alberta shall be divided into five geographic zones:

1. Each zone consists of both Trapper Locals and Association Members who are not a Member of a specific Local.
2. For a Local to participate in the Zone under these bylaws the executive of each Local must be Members in good standing with the Association.
3. The makeup of Locals in each Zone will be established by ordinary resolution of the Board from time to time as the need may arise.
4. Locals within each Zone will operate pursuant to the bylaws and policies of the Association.
5. The number and location of the zones will be reviewed by the Board at least once in every five-year period.
6. Members of each zone will select 2 representatives to be appointed to serve as Directors on the Board of the Association. The names of the Zone's two selected Members will be submitted at the AGM. Appointment of the two Members

- will be ratified by resolution of Members at the AGM and the two Zone representatives will begin their term on the Board immediately following the AGM.
7. In the event that at the AGM a Zone does not provide two representatives, the Chair may call for nominations from the floor to select a Member to represent the Zone. In the event there are no nominations from the floor at the AGM, the Board may appoint a Member to represent a Zone.
 8. It is understood that some Locals are incorporated under the Alberta Societies Act, while other Locals are not incorporated. Members of Locals must be Members in the Association. The Board will work with each Local to ensure that each Local is supporting and upholding the mission, values and objectives of the Association ethically and with integrity. In order to ensure complicity with these bylaws by Locals, the Association may propose to establish Memorandums of Understanding with each Local.

Article 7 - Governing Board

7.01 Governing Terms

1. The Association shall be governed and controlled pursuant to the Societies Act and must adhere to the bylaws and policies of the Association. In the event of a conflict, the Societies Act will supersede the bylaws and policies of the Association.
2. Pursuant to the Association bylaws, the Association shall be governed by a 12 Member Board of Directors that consists of 2 representatives from each zone to serve as Directors, in addition to a President and Vice President. The ATA board of directors retains the option to appoint, no less than 30 days prior to the AGM, a third director in a Zone to allow better service for locals.
3. The Board may delegate any of its powers, authority and duties to a designated committee or person, except the power to create bylaws.
4. A quorum at Board Meetings shall be 50% of the Board Members.
5. All Board Directors must be Members in good standing with the Association.
6. Board of director members will serve for a period of two years.
7. In the event of a mid-term vacancy, the Board will ask the Members of that Zone for the name of a person to fill in the vacancy. In the event a person is not selected, the remaining Board Member from the Zone will serve on behalf of both until the AGM, at which time a new Member may be selected by the Zone.
8. The President term is 2 years.
9. The Vice President term is 2 year.

10. The immediate past President may, at the discretion of the Board, attend and participate in Board of Director Meetings but will not have a right to vote at Board of Director Meetings.
11. The President and Vice President and Members of the Board of Directors in good standing with the Association may serve as many additional terms as is the pleasure of the voting membership of the Association and zones.
12. Board of Directors will have the right to vote at meetings of the membership.

7.02 Board Executive Officers

There shall be four Executive Members who will serve as Officers of the Association Board of Directors, and any two Executive Officers may sign on behalf of the Association. Expenditure approval authority levels will be set by Board Policy. The four Executive Members are:

1. President – the President will be the spokesperson for the Association, and he/she will chair and preside at all meetings of the Association. The President has signing authority for the Association and will carry out duties of the President pursuant to the bylaws, policies and resolutions of the Board.
2. Vice President – the Vice President will provide support for the role of the President, and he/she will chair and preside at any meeting the President is not able to attend. The Vice President has signing authority for the Association.
3. Treasurer – the Treasurer shall be responsible to ensure that the Association's processes for receiving and handling of all monies paid to or by the Association are accounted for. The Treasurer has signing authority for the Association. Responsibilities of the treasurer include:
